

Laura Siersema – ” Love Flows Like The Blood of a River “

ISWM INDIE PICK OF THE MONTH – (review)... THE CD: Her voice beckons mercilessly to the physical world like the bodiless spirit that haunts the mansion on a faraway hill. Wanderers beware....

WHY IT WAS SELECTED: Spookiness that sucked us into its ethereal perspective.

SUMMARY: Not that Laura meant to create something with a sinister quality to it, but this CD gives the impression that we are being followed by spirits whose main goal is to somehow change us. The reason, unknown. We can sense that the changes may not be warranted or wanted...yet we are powerless to their advances.
